

boursiers
de la REINE
ELIZABETH
QUEEN ELIZABETH
Scholars

SCHOLARSHIP

INFO SESSION

OCTOBER 18

Calling All: Ph.D Candidates at Carleton University

Are you conducting PhD research on Societal Transformation and/or Climate Change? Are you interested in international travel and conducting research in Sub-Saharan Africa? Carleton University has partnered with Ghana, Malawi, and Tanzania to provide funded research placement opportunities in these locations.

Interested to learn more? Want to meet previous candidates? Come to the information session and get started! See the website for more details: www.carleton.ca/qes

Queen Elizabeth
Scholarship for Advanced Scholars (QES-AS)
Information Session

Open Call for 2019 funded research placements in Africa

(PhD Level Only – Certain Eligibility Requirements Apply)

Travel/Research/Learn

Applications Due:
December 1, 2018

Location/Time:

ROOM: Learning Lab 481
MacOdrum Library
Thursday October 18, 2018
1:30 – 3:00pm

Questions?

Please contact:

QE.Scholars@Carleton.ca

www.carleton.ca/qes

The Canadian Queen Elizabeth II
Diamond Jubilee Scholarships (QES) is managed through a partnership of Universities Canada, the Rideau Hall
Foundation (RHF), Community
Foundations of Canada (CFC) and Canadian universities. The QES-AS is made possible with financial support from IDRC and SSHRC