

CALL FOR PAPERS

FRICION ON THE MARGINS: EMERGING METHODS & PERSPECTIVES

The Sociology & Anthropology Graduate Student Caucus (SAGSC) Conference Committee at Carleton University welcomes submissions to its 6th annual graduate student conference. The committee aims to provide an intellectual platform where graduate students across disciplines may share their unique empirical research and theoretical insights.

Submissions from a wide range of disciplines are encouraged:

- Sociology, Anthropology & Psychology
- Law, Criminology & Socio-Legal Studies,
- Political Science & Economics
- International Relations
- Geography & Urban Studies
- Canadian & Indigenous Studies
- Postcolonial, Race, Gender & Queer Studies
- Quantitative & Qualitative Research Methods

April 6-7, 2018

Carleton University
Dunton Tower
Room 2017

15 minute presentations

Please submit a 200-word abstract
with brief biography and contact information
in a Microsoft
Word document.

Send to:
sagsc.conference
@gmail.com

EXTENDED SUBMISSION DEADLINE

Friday, February 16, 2018

Presenters will be notified of their acceptance by February 23, 2018

SAGSC Conference Committee at Carleton University:

Derek Cooper, Matthew Sanscartier, Rhys Steckle, Sarah Fiander, Emma Bider, Rebecca Nokleby, Matthew Johnston, Mark Ramsay, Stacey Cook, Nadine Powell, Sheridan Conty, and Abigail Curlew